MAYON VOLCANOE, MAY 15, 1993
A group of people are gathered around a small table, looking at a map of the volcano.

Mayon Volcano is a cinder cone volcano located in the Philippines. It is one of the most active volcanoes in the world. The volcano has a history of frequent eruptions, with the most recent one occurring in 1993. The volcano is known for its "Baboy" (pig) shape, which is why it is also known as "Baboy Volcano".

Poor, flood-prone town shuns rich Naga

By Jerry C. Gomez
April 27

WHILE THE RICH AND FAMOUS are flocking to the town of Naga, the poor and the flood-prone are shunning it.

Naga is a town in the Philippines, known for its rich history and culture. It is a popular tourist destination, with many people visiting to see the famous Naga Cathedral. However, the town is also known for its poor and flood-prone areas, which are shunned by the rich and famous.

Sex abuse probe pushed; 'integrity is paramount'

MANILA, July 14 (AP) — The Philippine Commission on the Integrity of Public Officials (CIPRO) has pushed back the deadline for its probe into the alleged sexual abuse of a police officer by a police officer.

The CIPRO, which was created by the Department of Justice (DOJ) in 2009, has been investigating the case since it was filed in May 2009. The probe was initially set to be completed by the end of the year, but the commission has now extended the deadline to the end of the second quarter of 2011.

The CIPRO chairperson, Justice Secretary LeRoy M. Peralta, said the commission is committed to a thorough and impartial investigation. He added that the integrity of public officials is paramount and that the commission will not compromise its independence.

The case involves a police officer who is alleged to have sexually abused a police officer. The alleged victim is a police officer who is currently on leave. The alleged abuser is a police officer who is currently on duty. The case was filed with the CIPRO in May 2009.

Gov't, private sector promoting 'Metro Laguna' as new BPO hub

By Patricia E. Garcia MANILA — The Philippine government and private sector are promoting Metro Laguna as a new Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) hub. The Laguna Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI) is leading the effort, with the support of the Laguna Provincial Government and the Philippine Economic Zone Authority (PEZA). The LCCI is currently conducting a feasibility study for a BPO hub in Metro Laguna, which includes the cities of Alabang, Alibon, and Alibon. The study is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The LCCI is also planning to build a BPO hub in Metro Laguna, which will include a call center, a data center, and a training center. The hub is expected to create thousands of jobs for the local population. The Laguna Provincial Government is also supporting the effort, with the Laguna Provincial Office of the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and the Laguna Provincial Office of the Department of Education (DepEd). The PEZA is also supporting the effort, with the Laguna PEZA Office. The LCCI is also planning to build a BPO hub in Metro Laguna, which will include a call center, a data center, and a training center. The hub is expected to create thousands of jobs for the local population.

Figure 1 is a line graph illustrating the percentage of the total sample for various age groups across different years. The y-axis represents the percentage of the total sample, ranging from 0 to 100. The x-axis represents the years, with labels for 1980, 1990, 2000, 2010, and 2020. The age groups are categorized on the right side of the graph: 0-14, 15-24, 25-34, 35-44, 45-54, 55-64, and 65+.

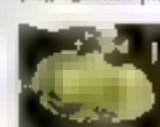

The graph shows a general trend of decreasing percentages for younger age groups and increasing percentages for older age groups over time. For example, the 0-14 age group shows a significant decrease from 1980 to 2020, while the 65+ age group shows a significant increase over the same period.
